Tell Us Who You Are

- In the chat, please put your name, organization, state and your current challenges with student mental health. Are you using Google sheets or sticky notes? Do you need funding? Is creating a system to address student needs too daunting? Don't know where to start?
- Share with your colleagues what you are doing right! Others could adapt it.
- During the presentations please put your questions in the chat and Lindsay Garrow with mdlogix client services will make sure they are addressed during the meeting. We will also have time AFTER each presentation for discussion, comments and questions.
